Drama Class Stages Play Based on Movie

By DEBBIE HYDE
Telegraph Riverside High Correspondent

Monday in the Riverside Auditorium, the dramatics class under the direction of David W. Shaner presented, "Rebel Without a Cause," a three act drama based upon the motion picture starring James Dean, presented a constructive look into the emotional problems of today's teenagers.

John Coe re-created the role of Jim Stark, the central character in the play. Prior to the performance, six members of the dramatics class—Lynne Henderson, Donna Clark, Jill Davis, Penny Sabo, Carolyn Hughes and Pat Madanski—presented a program of solo scenes from outstanding modern American plays.

May 13 was the day of the Spring Pop Concert for the high school band and the composite elementary band, directed by Richard Denner. The senior band performed in many numbers, such as "Relax," "From Africa to Harlem," and "Haskell's Rascals."

The 7th Grade students enjoyed a three day vacation touring our nation's capital. The trip began at 7 a.m. May 12, and lasted until about 7 a.m. May 15.

Recently scholars from Riverside High School traveled to John Carroll University to take the annual Hiram tests. Representing biology were Edwin Benson, Paul Hudak and Raymond McGee; chemistry, James Hill, David Katonak and James Nurmi; physics, Earl Homsher, Raymond Waldorf and Donald White; algebra, Betty Burg, Tomothy Cermak, Earl Ives, Michael Meslink, Veijo Panu and Robert Williams; social studies, Charles Hill, John Shaffer, Kay Drabenstot, James Thompson, Jeff Porter, Fred Walker and Jean Burg.

The Girls Athletic Assn. had its annual mother - daughter banquet on May 10th.

The 10th Grade sponsored a dance in the nature of a Hawaiian Luau, with Tommy Edwards as the disc jockey.

The junior-senior prom was held Friday night at Madison Country Club followed by the Post Prom Party in the school cafeteria.

Due to the number of girls who tried out for Beaverette's, it was decided to now have a Junior-varsity and Varsity squad of Beaverettes. Varsity is made up of next year's juniors and seniors and the junior - varsity squad will be composed of next year's sophomores.
